

Dr. Sebastiaan Hooghiemstra, LL.M. is an associate in the investment funds and financial regulatory practice of NautaDutilh Luxembourg and a Senior Fellow of the International Center for Financial Law & Governance at the Erasmus University Rotterdam.

He specializes in financial services regulatory, with a focus on fund regulatory and fund formation. He has a strong academic background with 50+ publications mainly related to investment fund law, including the following books: (i) Depositaries in European Investment Law – Towards Harmonization in Europe (Eleven International Publishing 2018), (ii) Koersen door de Wet op het financieel toezicht – Deel III – Beleggingsinstellingen en icbe's (BJU 2020) and as a co-author (iii) The Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive – European Regulation of Alternative Investment Funds (Kluwer 2012/2015/2020).

Sebastiaan has advised over the past 10 years various public institutions on policy issues related to financial regulatory law including: the European Commission, EIOPA, ESMA, the Liechtenstein government and Financial Market Authority, the Dutch Ministry of Finance and the Dutch Financial Market Authority.