

How EU member states might effectively reform their pension systems and improve long term-savings in the face of the today's challenges?

Thursday 2 December, 1pm-3pm CET

Programme

13.00	Welcome from Olga Rut-Fiedler, Chair at CBBA-Europe
13.05	How to effectively promote funded pensions in Europe?
	Nico Spiegel, DG Fisma, European Commission Fernando Larrain Arinat, World Bank and International Center for Pension Management (ICPM) Ambrogio Rinaldi, Italian supervisory authority on pension funds (COVIP)
13.40	Possible (and maybe necessary) pensions innovative solutions
13.40	Martino Braico, Previnet
	Andres Wagner, Zurich Emilie Rulland, ITX
	Carlo Di Gennaro, ENI pension fund
14.20	From local to European; from European to global? How future pension systems should tackle globalization and the changing labor market
	Joseph Barnes, Utmost PanEurope (partner of Generali GEB network) Ken Gulick, Fidelity Carl Gagnon, Unum Thierry Verkest, United Pensions
14.55	Conclusions from Francesco Briganti , Secretary General at CBBA- Europe